

Seattle Paid Sick and Safe Time

Starting September 1, 2012, employers are required to provide paid sick and safe time to their employees who work within Seattle city limits.

Employees are eligible for paid sick and safe time if work is performed on a full-time, part-time or temporary basis, including employees who occasionally work in Seattle for more than 240 hours per calendar year.

Paid sick and safe time may be used for:

- illness, injury or health condition or for preventative care for an employee or an employee's partner or family members.
- reasons related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- school or workplace closure by a public official to limit health hazards.
