

Northeastern University

2014 Excellence Awards

As part of the University-wide Honors Convocation on April 16, 2014, Northeastern will present Excellence Awards to benefits-eligible staff members whose achievements promote institutional excellence. Excellence Awards recipients receive a cash award and a commemorative gift.

This year there are two Excellence Awards:

1. Outstanding Service Award is for an individual who has established a history of exceptional performance in advancing the student, staff, and/or faculty experience.
2. Outstanding Teamwork Award honors Northeastern staff members in a unit or across units, who have joined together in unique or unexpected ways to solve a problem or to advance a significant task, project, or body of work successfully, effectively, and in a way that promotes Northeastern's institutional excellence.

Now is the time to nominate your staff colleague(s) for an Excellence Award!

- Do you work with a colleague who embodies Northeastern's commitment to service and excellence?
- Have you worked with a team whose efforts promote institutional excellence?

For more information about the Excellence Awards and the simple nomination process, click here, or contact Kate Baker-Carr, Manager of Communication, 617.373.2112.

The deadline is Friday, February 21.