

HR HAPPENINGS

What's new and what's important for faculty and staff right now.

RECOGNIZE: The International E-Learning Association has awarded our Performance & Development courses

Have you checked out our Performance & Development courses in Canvas? The International E-Learning Association recently presented our L&OD team with an Honorable Mention award for these courses so don't miss out.

L&OD is especially grateful to the more than twenty members across the university who worked for over a year to craft and implement the award-winning P&D modules.

Click here to learn more about how these partnerships resulted in online P&D trainings and what's in them for you and your team.

INCLUDE: Northeastern's expert on Access weighs in

How do you make platforms and resources useful and accessible to the thousands of employees in our global network, each of whom experience the world differently? By making informed decisions guided by collaboration with experts like Digital Accessibility Specialist Bill Dempsey.

As we move forward on implementing the new Workday system for employees throughout the global network, Bill will be pivotal in helping us test and implement Workday, helping ensure that we're building for accessibility from the ground up. Find out more about Bill and learn about the university-wide migration to Workday here.

REACH OUT: Engaging the community with our partners

City and Community Engagement helps students, employees, residents of Boston, and community organizations connect.

Through their programs, members of the Northeastern network can volunteer their time or reserve event space for community organizations. Most recently, they've been working with Human Resources to create and share information about career opportunities at Northeastern with job seekers and local organizations.

LEARN: Take your professional skills to the next level

As the university sets goals for the fiscal year, maybe it's time to set some for yourself. We have the courses to get you there whether you want to better tell your professional story, improve employee experiences, or set clearer goals. Discover our offerings and register below:

July 20: Rock Your LinkedIn Profile!
July 21: Role of the Manager Part 1: Attracting, Recruiting, and Onboarding Talent
July 28: It's Your Career: Overview of Performance & Development

MEET: The Face Behind the Function, Frazier Johnson, Sr. HRIT Analyst

Frazier is methodical, process-driven, and analytical—traits that lend themselves to the work he does here.

Read here to find out how Frazier has made the most of his time at Northeastern by becoming the person you seek when you need to fix an HR system or make it run more efficiently.

APPRECIATE: Employee recognition events are coming soon

You give Northeastern a reason to celebrate. We're pleased to announce that the university is now planning for our annual Service Recognition Reception, 25 Year Associates Event, and Retirement Dinners this fall.

Stay tuned for more news and upcoming dates to gather and celebrate the contributions our colleagues have made.

Hot Jobs at Northeastern

There's been interest and excitement around our inaugural series of Hot Jobs in last month's HR Happenings. If you missed it, this link will take you to where to learn more. Feel free to share the link and any openings you see with friends who may be great fits for Northeastern.

Have a job you'd like to submit? Let us know! Just connect to your local HR contact to relay the message to our Talent Acquisition team.
